Dear Dr. Gee

Who could be in a better position than you to make a spectacular statement in favor of green energy through your resignation from the board of directors of Massey Energy? This company is known for its practice of shearing mountain tops to remove coal which environmentalists say destroys forests, harms water quality, and endangers nearby residents.

What a wonderful statement it would be for you to surrender the compensation you receive from Massey as a director. For you to make such a sacrifice would be a loud cry not only in favor of a "green revolution," but also against the greed which has done so much toward bringing our country to its knees in recent months and years.

Please do not misunderstand me, Dr. Gee. I do not imply that you have done anything illegal or immoral. I do, however, ask that you review the moral implications involved in any activity detrimental to our area, our country and our planet.

I will pray that you use your position as president of Ohio State University to make the best possible decision in this matter.

Respectfully,

+ David W. Dunbar
